BaYS is an auditioned, sequential, youth orchestra program, for talented, and motivated student musicians at all levels.

BaYS Ensembles

Symphony

A full orchestra for advanced string, wind and percussion students. This group performs authentic orchestral repertoire, providing a challenge for high-level players.
Wednesdays, 6:30-8:30 pm

Sinfonia

A full orchestra for intermediate level string, wind and percussion students. This orchestra provides a challenging, full-orchestra experience that will encourage students to stretch their skills.
Wednesdays, 6:30-8:00 pm

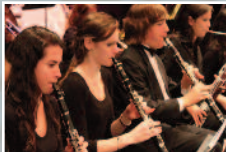

Dolce Strings

(No audition required)

A performing ensemble for young string players. These students have been studying their instruments for at least one year and are ready for some fundamental ensemble experience.
Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm

"BaYS has helped me grow musically. The music is very challenging, but, with practice, very rewarding."

— Carly Oddleifson, Symphony 2011

BaYS Staff

Music Director/Symphony Conductor

After an extensive, year-long search, a new Music Director/Symphony Conductor is expected to be named in May, 2011.

Nicholas Tatarka, Sinfonia Conductor

Mr. Tatarka is a graduate of Boston University and is currently Director of Orchestras for the Duxbury Public Schools.

Theresa Fritz, Dolce Strings Conductor

Ms. Fritz is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY. She is currently director of the string program for the Pembroke Public schools as well as a free lance musician throughout the Boston area.

Steven Karidoyanes, Artistic Advisor

Mr. Karidoyanes is Conductor and Music Director of the Plymouth Philharmonic Orchestra. He also directs the Masterworks Chorale and the NEC Youth Symphony and is a member of the conducting faculty at New England Conservatory.

Candace Kniffen, Managing Director

Ms. Kniffen is a graduate of the University of Michigan and Harvard University. She taught strings and served as Orchestra Director and K-12 Director of Music in the Marshfield Public Schools before her retirement in 2006. In 2002 she was named South Shore Arts Educator of the Year.
